Clinicians

Aaron Hines - Aaron Hines (ASCAP) is originally from the Sacramento area where his dedication to the percussive arts began as a member of the award-winning Sacramento High School percussion ensemble. For over 20 years Aaron has taught, arranged, and designed for numerous schools, ranging from the middle school to collegiate level while keeping an active clinician and adjudication schedule.

Aaron's ensembles have earned circuit and state titles as well as Medals, Fans' Favorite Awards, and Finalist appearances at the WGI World Championships. In addition, Aaron designs independently for schools across the country and has published works through Dave Glyde Show Designs, GPG Music (Five-time Best-Seller), Key Poulan Music, Creative Solutions, Jair Klarfeld Music, & JW Pepper. He is also an active member of the Percussive Arts Society serving as the Vice-President for the Nevada Chapter.

Currently, Aaron is the Executive Project Manager for Our Virtual Ensemble where he has produced, designed, and edited hundreds of performances including the NAfME All National Honor Ensembles, CBDNA Intercollegiate Marching Band, NAMM Foundation World of Pianos, and James Logan High School. He is also the Director of Customer Relations for GPG Music, and is a founder and coordinator for the Northern Nevada Indoor Association (NNIA) and the Sierra Nevada Band Series (SNBS).

Aaron is also an Endorsed Artist with Evans Drumheads, Innovative Percussion Sticks/Mallets, Sabian Cymbals, & the Yamaha Corporation.

He enjoys spending his free time with his wife Kimberly, daughter Sonya, and son Vincent.

Shilo Stroman - Shilo Stroman is a musical chameleon determined to fit into any musical situation supported by his wide range of musical talent, a laid back attitude and a desire to push himself artistically. His thirst for performing began at the age of 5 when his parents purchased a toy Drumset. Armed with his dads record collection, an empty basement and chopsticks as drumsticks, the journey began. He continues on this path with a diverse schedule of performing, composing and teaching.

A versatile performer, Mr. Stroman's credits range from playing triangle in symphony orchestras, electric bass in salsa bands, drums in funk bands and flower pots in chamber groups. Performing Stroman originals, Red Hot Chili Pepper covers and the occasional country tune, Shilo's contemporary jazz quartet, Square Peg, released their first recording, "Searching" in 2013. In 2006, he commissioned and performed the world premiere of "Sticks and Stones" variations for drumset and wind ensemble by Jim Bonney. Shilo can also be heard on various Jazz and singer/songwriter recordings.

As an educator, Shilo is a senior instructor of Percussion and Jazz at Colorado State University where he teaches lessons, percussion ensemble, drumline, Jazz Pedagogy, Jazz History, Percussion Methods and Jazz Ensemble II. Mr. Stroman is also very active in the marching arts and Mr. Stroman is also very active in the marching arts and is cur- rently the Artistic Director/Front Ensemble Arranger for The Battalion Drum and Bugle Corps, arranges for several independent WGI groups and high schools around the country.

Shilo's love of travel and sharing his passion for music education has led him to presenting clinics, adjudicating festivals and judging competitions. He has presented clinics at several Percussive Arts Society International Convention, State Music education conferences, middle schools, high schools and colleges throughout the United States. He has adjudicated at the UNC/Greeley Jazz Festival, The Kinser Jazz Festival as well as many smaller Jazz festivals. He also regularly judges marching band and indoor percussion contests around the country.

Shilo is a Yamaha Performing Artist and a proud endorser of Promark, Evans, and Sabian products.

Kimberly Hines - Kimberly Hines is from Reno, NV where she attended Sparks High School and graduated from Spanish Springs High School. Kim was a part of the Guard for 4 years and was the Guard Captain Fall 2000 & Winter 2003. Kim then attended the University of Nevada, Reno and was a part of their Fall Guard program from 2003-2005 and was the Captain in 2004.

Kim was also a part of the UNR Winter Guard in 2004 and 2005, followed by the Summit Winter Guard in 2006 and 2007 where she spun Flag, Rifle, and Saber. Kim has also taken Dance classes at TMCC and UNR and performed in the Fall and Spring Dance Concerts.

In 2003, Kim started teaching at Spanish Springs High School where she was the Rifle Tech. Kim then helped choreograph their Winter Guard show in 2004 and eventually became the Color Guard Caption Head, Choreographer, and Designer from fall 2005 through winter 2008. Under Kim's leadership, the Fall 2007 Guard became the Nevada State Champions and the Winter 2008 Guard won the Governor's Cup and Color Guard Sweepstakes! She was also the Movement Tech & Choreographer for eNVision in 2008, was the color guard caption head at Robert McQueen High School from 2009-2012, and has choreographed for groups all over the United States.

In 2012, Kim returned to the University of Nevada, Reno as the color guard caption head. Under her direction, the color guard program has flourished. In 2017, the UNR winter guard began competing in the Independent A class of WGI and has achieved multiple regional championships over the years.

Gary P. Gilroy enjoyed a very successful career as a high school band director for many years before becoming a college music professor. His Fred C. Beyer High School Band won the Summer of 1987 Bands of America Class AAA National Championship, The Fiesta Bowl National Pageant of Bands and the Sudler Shield from the John Philip Sousa Foundation. In 1993 he restarted the Fresno State Bulldog Marching Band and worked hard to build it into one of the finest college marching bands in the western United States. As a youngster Gilroy won DCI Championships with both the 1978 Santa Clara Vanguard and the 1979 Concord Blue Devils. After teaching drum corps for several years Dr. Gilroy became a DCI judge serving on the DCI World Championships Adjudication panel four times. More recently, Gary spends his summer writing for numerous marching bands throughout the world with more than 200 publications to his credit.

The Reed High School program is currently endorsed by the following organizations:

Special Thank You:
Josh Rosenbloom – for your constant support of Performing Arts.
Catalina Aguilar – for your donation of food and todays Director Hospitality.
Greater Nevada Credit Union
Blue Note B's

Absolute Music - for sponsoring this event and providing the clinicians at no charge to the programs.
Reed Band Boosters – for providing help today in concessions, guidance and setup. We really couldn't do this without your help!

Thank you for attending the Reed Performance Clinic, it is our goal to help strengthen Performing Arts in our community and foster education. Your students have done an amazing job and put in countless hours for only a few minutes of performance. We here at Reed want to help recognize that work and help expose students to new knowledge and techniques that can help elevate that performance at no cost to the students or programs. We look forward to seeing your groups next year and wish you safe travels on your drive home.

Thanks,
Ron Eichstedt
